I understand that under the Road Traffic (Administration) Act 2008 and Taxation Administration Act 2003, it is an offence to provide information that I know to be false or misleading.

IMPORTANT

A person who provides information to the Commissioner of State Revenue ('the Commissioner') knowing it to be false or misleading in a material particular commits an offence under the Taxation Administration Act 2003. The penalty for the offence is:

- (a) $20,000 and
- (b) three times the amount of duty that was avoided or might have been avoided if the false or misleading information had been accepted as true.

If a vehicle in respect of which an exemption has been granted under section 246(1), (2), (3) or 247(1) of the Duties Act 2008 is used for a different purpose referred to in section 246(1), (2), (3) or 247(1), the dealer must notify the Commissioner within one (1) month after the day on which the use of the vehicle changed. It is an offence not to notify the Commissioner, for which the maximum offence penalty is $5,000.

If a vehicle in respect of which an exemption has been granted under section 246(1), (2), (3) or 247(1) of the Duties Act 2008 is used for a purpose other than a purpose referred to in section 246(1)(a), (2)(a) or (3)(a) or 247 (1)(a), the dealer must notify the Commissioner within one (1) month after the day on which the use of the vehicle changed. The maximum offence penalty is $20,000.

Notify the Commissioner using form:

- FDA34 'Change of Use: Exempt to Non-exempt Purposes' if an exempt vehicle is no longer used for an exempt purpose; or
- FDA37 'Loan Vehicle Dealer's Declaration' if the vehicle was exempt as a stock, demonstrator or service demonstrator vehicle and its use changes to a loan vehicle used for certain charitable, philanthropic and driver training purposes.

If a dealer notifies the Commissioner of the change in use, the exemption will be removed and duty will be charged on the dutiable value of the vehicle at the time of the change in use.

If a dealer does not notify the Commissioner of the change in use, the exemption will be removed and duty will be charged on the dutiable value of the vehicle at the time the grant or transfer of the licence was exempted. Penalty tax equal to the amount of duty payable will also be charged.
